

Heisenberg uniqueness problems and partial differential equations

Håkan Hedenmalm

Abstract

We discuss the uniqueness sets for Fourier transforms of absolutely continuous measures on curves (absolutely continuous is w.r.t. arc length measure). We also discuss semi-uniqueness sets where the functions that vanish on the set form a finite-dimensional space.