

Reduction to the canonical shifts and applications

J.S. Rodríguez

On the unit circle we consider a class of paired singular integral operators with shift. In our talk we show that the consider operators can be reduced to the study of paired operators with a canonical shift. Some of these results are used to construct explicit solutions of a class of singular integral equations with non-Carleman shift.