

GRUPO
 TORDESILLAS

Tordesillas Group of Universities from Brazil, Portugal and Spain

- In 2000, the University of Valladolid founded Tordesillas Group in commemoration of the fifth century of the discovery of Brazil
- The Tordesillas Treaty was signed in 1494 by the reigns of Portugal and Castilla. By this Treaty, Portuguese and Castilian established an imaginary line across the territories discovered by both reigns and their respective routes of navigation.
- UNESCO declared the Tordesillas Treaty “World Heritage” in the category “Memory of the World” in 2007

Tordesillas Group's Structure

There are 3 Coordinations:

- 1) Portuguese Coordination in the University of Lisbon
- 2) Brazilian Coordination in the University of the State of Rio de Janeiro
- 3) Spanish Coordination in the University of Valladolid, which is the Executive Secretary also

The Presidency alternates, annually, among the three countries. At present, the Presidency is held by the University Federal Fluminense.

AIMS OF THE TORDESILLAS GROUP

- 1) to establish academic, cultural and socio-economic links among its associates.
- 2) to promote multilateral cooperation activities in matters of education, science, technology and innovation, by establishing researching nets which enhance mobility of teachers, researches and students.
- 3) to adopt measures to overcome impediments which obstruct educational cooperation through the recognition of degrees given by the universities members of the Group.
- 4) to pursue fluent communication among its members by identifying their common objectives, approaches and programmes in education and research.
- 5) to enhance the task that universities play in the society and in the enterprise world.
- 6) to take advantage of the similarities between our languages: portuguese, spanish and brasileiro. We don't use translators in our meetings, we just make the effort and it works!

Programmes

- ❖ Apart from our associates fees, we have counted on the financial support of Santander Universidades.
- ❖ Thanks to them, we have been able to launch the following programmes:
